Grovens Make Utah Bass Fishing Trip

By JACK MARY WEBB
From 9051
Second prize of the exhibits at the May Festival of Arts held this month at Redondo Union High School was won by Mrs. Robert Matson, 229 V. Alameda. Her 20-piece exhibit titled "Silver on Ebony" included earrings, disks, pins, cufflinks and necklaces. Fifty-one exhibitors, including many commercial houses, entered the exhibit.

On the music and dance side of the festival, Riviera was represented by many, including Misses Susan Matson, Nancy Googins and Karen Booth. Dick Beal, a student of piano for the past seven years, rendered a piano solo during the festival and, of course, our Los Carneros shone during the choral festival.

As Mel Groven always says, when a man wants to go fishing, he wants to GO. In keeping with what he always says, Mel and a wife Millie, together with new Rivierans Larry and Rosemary Schultz, trekked clear to Utah over a recent weekend in search of the elusive bass. It was a gorgeous sight to see them depart on Friday night with their trailer hitched behind—neighbors wondered where they were going at an hour like 11 p.m. with the trailer hitched on yet. This is the scoop. They traveled clear to the headwaters of Lake Mead, way up in Utah, but they did it the hard way—via Las Vegas. After a little "action" as they like to call it in Las Vegas, Mel and his pile of silver dollars and contingent drove the rest of the way into Utah, where at the aforesaid headwaters they (1) caught a number of bass; (2) almost swamped the boat; (3) got soaked to the skin. Mel reported rough weather or up there due to a cold wind that came barreling down the 130-mile channel and whipped rough water all over the Grovens and the Schultzes. On yes, they got back on time Monday morning.

Hostess at the May 19 cook party for the Veterans Hospital was Mrs. Edgar Forcier, 148 V. la Ciruela. Fourteen members attended the social get-together at her home, delivering great amounts of home-baked goodies for the hospitalized vets at the Long Beach hospital. Mrs. Forcier reports 210 packages of cookies were taken to the hospital, some 1200 cookies in all. Now mind you, these are not ordinary run-of-mill cookies but fancy jobs for the veterans. of local donors. Mrs. Gordon Jones, chairman of the local blood drive, phoned to tell us about it and give these instructions for those who might want to make a concrete and beneficial donation. In attendance for the drive in attendance from age 18 to 60 can give blood, but the 18 to 21 bracket must have parents' consent. Donors must weigh at least 110 pounds, no colds or recent severe operations. No pregnant women may donate nor can they until at least one year after the birth of their child. For any other information, she asks you call FAIRfax 8-3447 or FAIRfax 8-3449. Those are the new local dial numbers for Torrance Blood drive. Incidentally, a group can get together and make up a blood group; members may draw upon it anytime so long as it is still an active group.

There's proud parents down at 220 Via Linda Vista, and well they might be. That's the home of the Philip Shaws, and their 17-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, has just won two scholarships. One was the North American award in attendance amount of $500 and the other was the Elks scholarship, $300. She has been admitted, incidentally, to Stanford University with honors, because of her high scholastic standing. Come join the band, Elizabeth, and as a baby shower was held last Thursday, May 28, at the home of co-hostess Mrs. Emil Huskamp, 113 Paseo de Granada. Mrs. Jim Jones was the other hostess.

old boy singer, Joe Richmond of Gardena, who sang two songs and an encore. Personally, we can see why Warner's and other studios have utilized his talent in movies; his strong, clear voice reminded us of Bob-Bye-Bye—maybe even a little better. Clinton Clark, of Lawndale; followed young Joe with two renditions in his strong baritone. Clark is well known for his roles in South Bay Civic Light Opera presentations and was well received and appreciated.

Now, for the good news—how did the dance do financially? Did it help the American Cancer Society? And how it did! Co-chairmen Pat Patronsky and Mrs. Paul Reitter report that the affair looks to clear over $500 for the drive. Already some $495 is in the house and several ticket committee members have not yet turned in their receipts. Expenses were only $140, since the beach club donated the hall. More than $70 was turned in by the bar as its share of the donation. Then too, the co-chairmen report, the Daily Breeze donated $71 to the drive, a percentage of many subscription receipts. It's a grand success and you all helped to make it so. Take another pat on the back, Rivierans.

Man Finds $50 Bond on Street

A $50 war bond registered to Charlie Wegal, 2311 E. 119th St., was turned in to Torrance police last week by Emmet Collins, who lives in the Keystone Trailer court, who found the bond on Carson St. between Normandie and Vermont. The registered owner of the bond could not be located, and believing that it may have changed hands since the date of purchase, the local police have sent the bond to the Treasury department in Washington, D.C. Any local resident who knows anything about this bond is asked to contact the Torrance police station, according to Regina Ryan, police matron.

Torrance moved quietly into the big time last week when it got its new dial system of movie in operation. One of the most important numbers for us to know, however, is still the same: it's 116, and that's the number you call when you need a few firemen in a hurry, or an ambulance.

Mrs. Robert Reese and Mrs. Abel Stone gave a baby shower in honor of Mrs. Glen Grimsley and the coming Grimsley at the home of Mrs. Reese, 482 Calle de Aragon, last May 18. Fourteen local Rivierans were in attendance at the affair. The refreshments featured cakes in pink and blue, baked and decorated by the hostesses, ice cream and coffee, and games designed to find the best name for the coming baby were played.

Let's all sing the praises of the Sportsmen and Las Vegas this week for the splendid and worthwhile dance they delivered at the beach club last Saturday night. It was all for the American Cancer Society drive, and took the place of the usual door-to-door solicitations. Some 400 persons attended the gala affair, which featured dancing, entertainment and liquid refreshment. Rivierans were captivated by the songs of a 12-year-old boy singer, Joe Richmond of Gardena, who sang two songs and an encore. Personally, we can see why Warner's and other studios have utilized his talent in movies; his strong, clear voice reminded us of Bob-Bye-Bye—maybe even a little better. In honor of Elizabeth Anne Baldwin, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Baldwin, a baby shower was held last Thursday, May 28, at the home of co-hostess Mrs. Emil Huskamp, 113 Paseo de Granada. Mrs. Jim Jones was the other hostess.

Twenty Rivierans attended the affair. Refreshments were cheese cake and coffee. Table decorations included tiny flannel diapers dipped in paraffin for candy and nut holders, and stories fashioned of safety pins and colored toothpicks. Many beautiful gifts were given. The new baby by the attending group.

Rivierans who attended included Mesdames A. J. Patronsky, Tom Coleman, Ross Dorsey, Frank Hanover, Fred Munson, Paul Sessey, Fred Tietzel, George Behrendt, D. Wanke, Jack Webb, Robert Wermuth, Conrad Vanderberg, Charles Niemoeller, Jack Walker, Dwight Riner, J. G. Lee, William Warden, R. G. Bariles, Grace Stetko and Miss Ann Barber.
